

LEANDER T. GALLEGOS*Dr. Leander ThOMAS Gallegos

26 Jul 1930

"Tom", age 84, passed away on May 3, 2015 at his home in Scottsdale, AZ. He is an example of generosity and selflessness to all. Dr. Gallegos is a graduate of Georgetown University and received his Doctor of Dental Surgery (D.D.S.) from Georgetown University School of Dentistry in 1956. After retiring as a Colonel in the Army Dental Corps he became an associate professor at Emory University and later returned to Georgetown University in 1978 as a Professor of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery and Director of the Oral Surgery Residency Program. Tom is survived by his wife Gloria of 58 years, his daughter Deborah Miller (Jon) of Scottsdale, AZ; son Dr. Robert (Elizabeth) of Purcellville, VA; brother Lucas of McLean, VA; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Burial to be in Phoenix, AZ.

Published in The Washington Post on May 10, 2015